Glory be to the Father – in whom we live and move and have our being.

Glory be to the Son – whose name we bear and who calls each of us to be his disciples; to build his Kingdom and to go out into the world and bear its fruit.

Many of you will already know, however, some of you may not be aware, that our three churches have a combined PPC. There are representatives from each church on the council, the PPC meets monthly and between us we try to build a strong foundation of spirituality, prayer and celebration within our churches. We have decided that it is vitally important to keep all parishioners informed about the ongoing work of the PPC and to invite your comments and suggestions for the way forward.

You are all invited to join the PPC at the AGM to join in these discussions.
