ANGEL TREE A Message from Tony Nicholson, Gateshead Council "On behalf of my colleagues, families and young people, I wish to express sincere thanks and gratitude, for what has been an overwhelming year for your annual Angel Tree Appeal. It is an act in true Christian spirit, that you share the joy of Christmas and so openly and generously collect for disadvantaged groups and those in need. As in previous years, with the dedication of Bridgette Jones, and a now well supported network of staff, we are able to ensure that all gifts and resources reach those in genuine need. Your kindness, dedication and generosity are greatly appreciated and recognised as making a real difference. May I take this opportunity to thank you all and wish you a happy, healthy and safe 2019. God bless." There are two colourful hand-made 'Thank You' cards displayed at the back of church.

GIFT AID DECLARATION FORMS As we now have our new parish of Our Lady and St Philip Neri, the Diocese is asking everyone who makes regular gift-aided financial contributions to the parish to complete a new Gift Aid Declaration Form. These forms are in named envelopes at the back of church - please complete and return the forms as soon as possible. Thank you.

GIFT FOR LIFE

A message from Mary Skaag on behalf of Bamma Satram, India: "With thanks for the recent cheque of £1800 sent from your parish. I am absolutely delighted and humbled by your generosity."

Mary was going to India for a month between Christmas and New Year so would have the opportunity to speak personally to Father Sarves about what the gift can specifically be used for.

And another message from Sister Victoria on behalf of The Subukia Community in Kenya "The Subukia Community truly express their gratitude to Gift for Life Fund for your continuous support. Two children orphaned by HIV/AIDS have had their education supported with one girl about to complete her degree course. Food and grain were distributed to combat hunger during the period of Summer drought and flooding. We have also managed to construct a small house for five children left orphaned."

RADIO MARIA is a private initiative within the Catholic Church. Over the airwaves, Radio Maria works to bring about the gifts that flow from the evangelisation of the Gospel: salvation through Jesus Christ for every person. The main themes of their programming are the Liturgy of Hours (which is broadcast every day), Mass and the Holy Rosary. They also provide catechesis and cover topics concerning the profession of faith, social issues, programs of human and social development, as well as news from the Church and society. Please visit www.radiomaria.org

CALLED AND GIFTED is a programme developed in the United States by the Catherine of Sienna Institute. It aims to help people discern the gifts or charisms they have been given through which they might serve their parish. These range from Leadership through Craftsmanship and Voluntary Poverty to Wisdom, to give just some examples. The hope is that once people know what they're good at, both they and their parish can benefit from them doing it. The diocese is looking to train people in how to deliver the Called and Gifted programme. These people will be crucial in making this opportunity available to as many people in our parishes as possible. They will also be closely involved in what we hope will become a significant development in our diocese and have an inside-view on how the whole thing works. If you'd like to be one of these people, please come along to the first training day on Saturday 2nd February 2019, 9am - 5pm at St John Vianney, Newcastle, NE5 1DP. If you decide that this is something you'd like to continue with, you'll need to come to two further training days on Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th March 2019, 9am - 5pm (both days) at St Mary's Catholic School, Newcastle, NE7 7PE but there's no pressure to do so. We're hoping to train 50 people, so any one person's commitment to delivering the programme should be very manageable. For further information and/or to sign up, please contact: adult.formation@diocesehn.org.uk or visit the website <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/called-and-gifted-team-training-registration-53136051360>

ITEMS FOR THE NEWSLETTER Please type or write the item with as much detail as possible (i.e. description of the event or notice, dates, times, venue, contact person, links to further information) and then either email to stmarysphilip@aol.co.uk or post through the presbytery letterbox at Immaculate Heart by 10am on Thursday 31 January at the latest.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ,
from your abundant grace,
pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.
As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands,
by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede,
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:
to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.
We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
You who live and reign for ever and ever.
Amen.

First Reading*Nehemiah 8:2-6. 8-10*

Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, consisting of men, women and children old enough to understand. This was the first day of the seventh month. On the square before the Water Gate, in the presence of the men and women, and children old enough to understand, he read from the book from early morning till noon; all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden dais erected for the purpose. In full view of all the people – since he stood higher than all the people – Ezra opened the book; and when he opened it all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people raised their hands and answered, ‘Amen! Amen!’; then they bowed down and, face to the ground, prostrated themselves before the Lord. And Ezra read from the Law of God, translating and giving the sense, so that the people understood what was read. Then Nehemiah – His Excellency – and Ezra, priest and scribe (and the Levites who were instructing the people) said to all the people, ‘This day is sacred to the Lord your God. Do not be mournful, do not weep.’ For the people were all in tears as they listened to the words of the Law. He then said, ‘Go, eat the fat, drink the sweet wine, and send a portion to the man who has nothing prepared ready. For this day is sacred to our Lord. Do not be sad: the joy of the Lord is your stronghold.’

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm*Psalm 18:8-10. 15. R/ John 6:63*

Response: Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect,
it revives the soul.
The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,
it gives wisdom to the simple.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart.
The command of the Lord is clear,
it gives light to the eyes.
3. The fear of the Lord is holy,
abiding for ever.
The decrees of the Lord are truth
and all of them just.
4. May the spoken words of my mouth,
the thoughts of my heart,
win favour in your sight, O Lord,
my rescuer, my rock!

Second Reading*I Corinthians 12:12-14. 27*

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Nor is the body to be identified with any one of its many parts. Now you together are Christ’s body; but each of you is a different part of it.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation*Luke 4:18*

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Lord has sent me to bring the good news to the poor,
to proclaim liberty to captives.

Alleluia!

Gospel*Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21*

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Seeing that many others have undertaken to draw up accounts of the events that have taken place among us, exactly as these were handed down to us by those who from the outset were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, I in my turn, after carefully going over the whole story from the beginning, have decided to write an ordered account for you, Theophilus, so that your Excellency may learn how well founded the teaching is that you have received. Jesus, with the power of the Spirit in him, returned to Galilee; and his reputation spread throughout the countryside. He taught in their synagogues and everyone praised him. He came to Nazara, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day as he usually did. He stood up to read, and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll he found the place where it is written: The spirit of the Lord has given to me, for he has anointed me.

He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor,
To proclaim liberty to captives
and to the blind new sight,
to set the downtrodden free,
to proclaim the Lord’s year of favour.

He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the assistant and sat down. And all eyes in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to speak to them, ‘This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
