SEA SUNDAY Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. Today's retiring collection is for Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea), the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you. If you would like to donate online, please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM ANGELA CORRIGAN "The Corrigan and Rossi Families would like to express their sincere thanks to Father Leighton for Teresa's beautiful Requiem Mass and to Bill Simmons, his altar server; to Dr Jim McPhee, who came out of retirement to provide music during the Requiem and to the choir; to Patricia McCusker, Angela Bell, Pauline Atkinson, Mary and Bill Cookson, for the beautiful floral arrangements and lighting the votive candles, in thanksgiving to God for Teresa being TERESA! Sincere thanks too, for all who attended Teresa's Requiem, for Mass offerings and words of sympathy, both written and spoken. God bless you all."

THE RED MISSION BOXES collection is now due in each of our three churches. Please could all monies be paid in by this Sunday 14 July. Thank you.

JOHN INGRAM PARTNERSHIP MASS will be celebrated on the Feast of the Martyrs of the Diocese on Wednesday 24 July at 7.00 pm to be held at St Joseph's Church, Gateshead. Light refreshments will be available after the Mass to enable people to mingle, chat, and get to know each other.

ST MARYS RC SCHOOL DIOCESAN INSPECTION
A message from Mr J Wheatley (Headteacher, St Mary's RC Primary School): It is with great pride that I am able to share with you all that St Mary's RC primary School has once more been rated 'Outstanding' in all areas following our recent Diocesan Inspection. I wanted to take this opportunity to say a huge thank you to all our pupils, staff, governors, and of course our families and wider parish community, for the part that you have all played in achieving this fantastic outcome. The inspection process was incredibly affirming for us all, and as ever, our pupils shone throughout – demonstrating the very best of what we are at St Mary's. As a steward of this special community, it is wonderful for me to know that a visiting colleague has instantly recognised the many strengths of the school's Catholic Life, Religious Education and Collective Worship, making comment that, "prayer and spirituality are at the heart of the school community, helping pupils to develop their understanding of God's love for them," "excellent relationships are a strength of the school," and that, "staff know their pupils well and consistently teach lessons that engage and enthuse pupils." A copy of the full report can be found on our school website (<http://www.whickhamstmarys.org.uk/performance.html>). God bless.

LATEST UPDATE FROM BALAMMA SATRAM When Fr Sarves and Mary Skaag visited our parish recently, they were happy to be given such a warm welcome and to receive the commitment from Gift for Life to support their charity in the future. Mary outlined that the most recent concerns were based on the fact that there has been no rain for six years, causing catastrophic consequences - wells have dried up across an area as large as from Durham to Newcastle. Temperatures are currently 50 degrees and recent winds have blown away so many fragile homes in the region, although thankfully their complex is secure due to good foundations for the buildings. Balamma Satram provides accommodation for 150 people at any one time, namely the following groups in desperate need: the elderly, lepers, those disabled, the sick, victims of accidents; with additional support for others in dire need on occasion. Other groups of the poor who are widows or grandparents give help to the Balamma Satram community which enables their children/dependents to be educated. 54 are in education, 24 are handicapped and the remainder are the elderly. To assist in the longevity of the charity, it has paired with Carmelite Sisters in the province to ensure the continuation of the great work being carried out at Balamma Satram over the next 70 years. Fr Sarves and Mary have worked tirelessly to achieve this aim and offer Masses of ~Thanksgiving to all who support their mission.

JOHN INGRAM PRIEST AND MARTYR 1565 - 1594

In his new book, Fr Zielinski provides the background to the tempest of the Protestant Reformation in England and its impact on the spiritual, social and cultural dimensions of society, including on Tyneside, in order to situate the coming into the country of the seminary priests, such as John Ingram, who had trained abroad and who had to live hunted lives in Elizabethan England which had become a police state with an elaborate spy-network. The book encourages the general reader to delve more deeply into the findings of Professor Eamon Duffy and Clare (Lady) Asquith, who argue for a more multi-dimensional reading of this period in English history, in contrast to the one-dimensional Protestant version of events in Tudor England. Some of John Ingram's letters and epigrams are included in the book, as well as a photocopy of his student entry and his signature in the Liber Ruba of the English College in Rome, courtesy of Professor Maurice Whitehead, the Schwarzenbach Research Fellow, acting as Archivist in the Archivum Venerabilis Collegii Anglorum de Urbe (The Venerable English College) in Rome.

Copies of the book (£5.99) are available in our three churches and at Pauline Books and Media, St Mary's Cathedral.

ITEMS FOR THE NEWSLETTER Please type or write the item with as much detail as possible (i.e. description of the event or notice, dates, times, venue, contact person, links to further information) and then either email to stmarysphilip@aol.co.uk or post through the presbytery letterbox at Immaculate Heart by 10am on Thursday 18 July at the latest.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ,
from your abundant grace,
pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.
As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands,
by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede,
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:
to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.
We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
Amen.

Our Lady, Star of the Sea Pray for Seafarers Pray for us

O Mary, Star of the Sea, light of every ocean, guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea. As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross deserts of our time, show us, O Mary, the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost. Pray that we will never fail on life's journey, that in heart and mind, word and deed, in days of turmoil and in days of calm, we will always look to Christ and say, 'Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?' Our Lady of Peace, pray for us! Bright Star of the Sea, guide us!

First ReadingDeuteronomy 30:10-14*

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 18:8-11. R/v.9*

Response: The precepts of the Lord gladden the heart.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect,
it revives the soul.
The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,
it gives wisdom to the simple.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart.
The command of the Lord is clear,
it gives light to the eyes.
3. The fear of the Lord is holy,
abiding for ever.
The decrees of the Lord are truth
and all of them just.
4. They are more to be desired than gold,
than the purest of gold
and sweeter are they than honey,
than honey from the comb.

Second ReadingColossians 1:15-20*

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God
and the first-born of all creation,
for in him were created
all things in heaven and on earth:
everything visible and everything invisible,
Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers –
all things were created through him and for him.
Before anything was created, he existed,
and he holds all things in unity.
Now the Church is his body,
he is its head.
As he is the Beginning,
he was first to be born from the dead,
so that he should be first in every way;

because God wanted all perfection
to be found in him
and all things to be reconciled through him and for him,
everything in heaven and everything on earth,
when he made peace
by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamationcf. Jn 6:63. 68*

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words are spirit, Lord,
and they are life:

you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

GospelLuke 10:1-9*

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus, 'do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, provided himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one, who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
