PARISH FINANCIAL SUMMARY APRIL - DECEMBER 2025

Our Lady & St Philip Neri

Parish funds have fallen by £3,594 to £267,520 in the 9 months to the end of December. Offertory collections (loose plate, envelopes and Standing Orders) of £44,996 are 8% up on last year which is good news while the potential Gift Aid claim on this income is £9,832. This could be even higher if more eligible parishioners (i.e. UK Taxpayers) signed up for the Gift Aid scheme - if interested, please contact the Parish Office.

On the downside, repairs spend at £12,955 is £7,048 higher than last year with a new boiler and windows for Dockendale Cottage accounting for £7,793 of the total. Further works on the gable wall has been identified with a price tag of £7,500 while new lighting in St Mary's Hall will cost £2,500.

Fr Endre's duties as Assistant Priest bring a charge of £7,000 as we share his Allowance and presbytery costs with Sacred Heart.

Sacred Heart, Byermoor

Parish funds have fallen by £1,180 to £61,572 by the end of December. Offertory collections in all its forms totalled £9,727 which is £547 up on the same period last year. However, this is insufficient to fund a full-time priest hence the 50/50 split of Fr Endre's costs with Our Lady and St Philip Neri Parish. As mentioned above, if parishioners are UK Taxpayers, they can increase their donations by Gift Aid which means that for every £1 donated an extra 25p per £1 can be re-imbursed to the parish by HMRC - if interested, please contact the Parish Office.

Repair expenditure of £549 is hugely down on last year's £29,279 but a number of areas have been identified for update and renewal with initial estimates coming in at over £34,000. This is obviously a concern given progressing with all the work would wipe out over half of the parish's surplus.

Jen's Weekly Prayer

The early winter twilight was blazoned across the turquoise sky
like a pair of extraordinary, beautiful crimson wings glowing with enfolded light.

The bare, dark, balletic trees' branches,
beneath this spectacular display,
completed this awesome, artistic masterpiece.
In this time of great uncertainty when fear, pain
and increasing anxiety permeate
so many places across the world, that all who are in positions of power and authority act justly, wisely, prudently, honourably and compassionately and value those whose lives rely upon their judgements.

May peace, hope and love prevail against this backdrop.

We once again give thanks for the natural world's extraordinary shape and beauty which can fill us with warmth and hope at a time of doubt and fear.
Help us to cherish the unexpected beauty we can recall and treasure the joy and delight kindled within us to calm and comfort us in darker moments.

Jen Jones @ January 2026

First Reading

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

Seek the Lord, all you humble of the land, who do his just commands; seek righteousness; seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the anger of the Lord.

I will leave in your midst a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the Lord, those who are left in Israel; they shall do no injustice and speak no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue. For they shall graze and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 146 (145): 6c-7. 8-9a. 9b-10. R/Mt 5:3

R/ Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

It is the Lord who preserves fidelity for ever,
who does justice to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord who sets prisoners free. R/

The Lord who opens the eyes of the blind,
the Lord who raises up those who are bowed down.
It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord who protects the stranger. R/

The Lord upholds the orphan and the widow, but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever,
your God, O Sion, from age to age. R/

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Consider your calling, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God. And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption; so that, as it is written, 'Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:12a

Alleluia, alleluia
Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward is great in heaven.
Alleluia.

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12a

The Lord be with you.

And with your Spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
